THE VICK FAMILY

The name Vick was shortened from Vicque and the family originated in Bavaria. It was one of these original Bavarian Vicks who was granted a coat of arms after having quelled an insurrection through the power of love, the Star on the Shield being symbolic of peace and the reversed mace in the crest signifying the waiving of kindly authority and the assumption of the power of love. Arms Azure a mullet or Crest; Armiger proper issuant in robe and pointed cap both azure in his hand a mace or with head downward Motto Good.

The Vick family was mentioned among the French Huguenots of France and later was represented in Minchin Hampton and Berkely in Gloucestershire, England at an early date.

Adam Vicque came to Virginia bringing with him seven persons among them Joseph Vicque. It was Joseph who dropped the que and spelled his name VICK.

Joseph Vick settled in Isle of Wight County, Virginia about 1672 and married the daughter of Hodges Council. On December 20, 1673 Hodges Council gave 50 acres of land to Lucy the daughter of Joseph Vick. In the deed he said if Lucy should die without heirs the land should go to her brother or sister but if both she and her Father died without heirs the land was to return to Hodges Council or his heirs. The land was later owned by one of Lucy's brothers and was located in what is now Southampton County, Virginia.

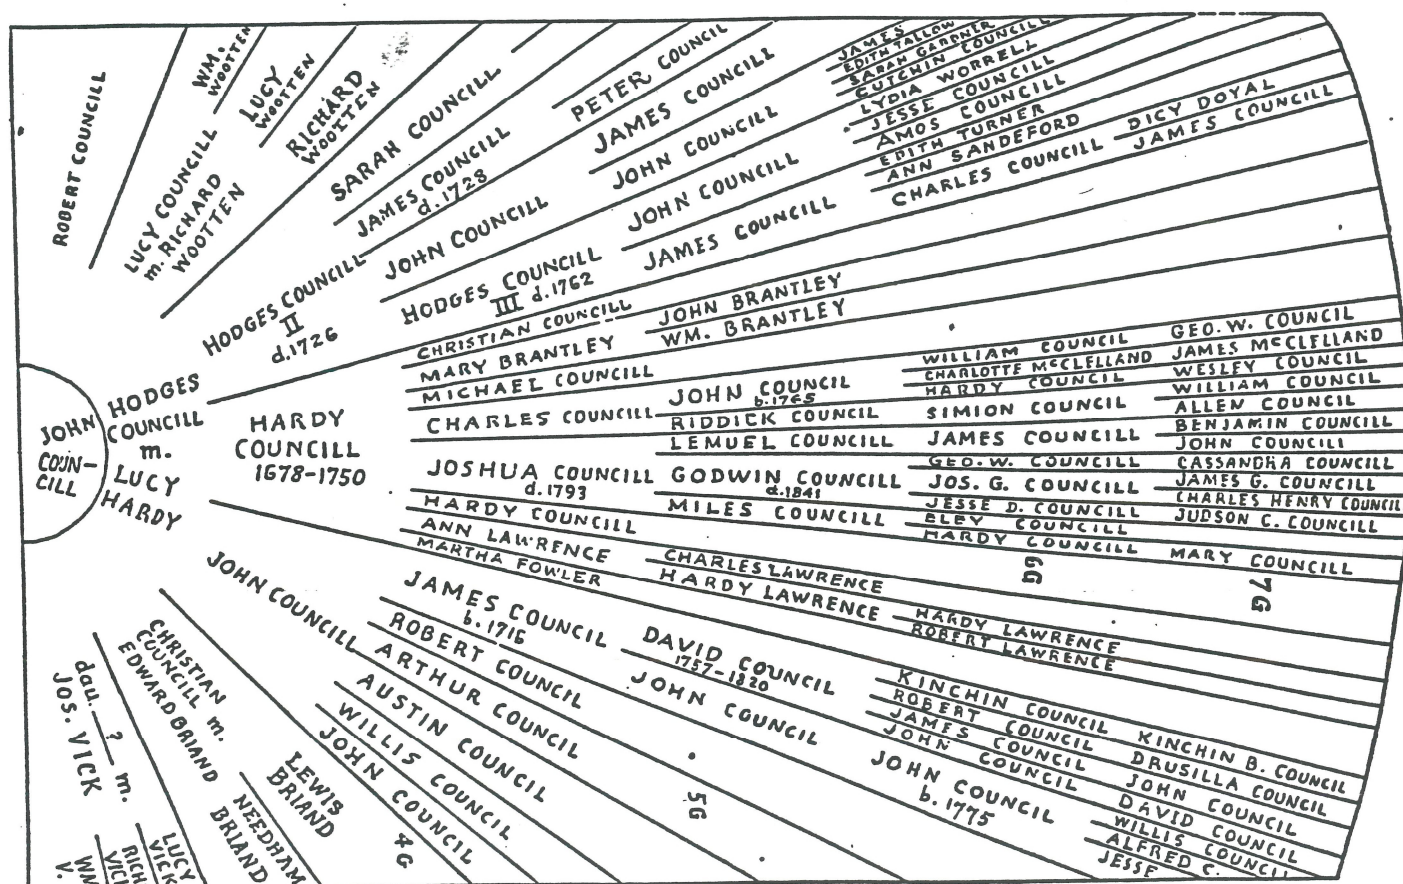

JOSEPH VICK and his wife had seven children: 1. Lucy Vick 2. Richard Vick 3. Mathew Vick 4. ROBERT VICK 5. John Vick 6. Joseph Vick 7. William Vick.

JOSEPH VICK died in 1695.

1. Lucy Vick appears to have died without heirs. She probably married Thomas Parker.
2. Richard Vick married 1st Sarah and 2nd Martha Woodward and he died in 1758, 7 children: Arthur Vick, Jacob Vick, Richard Vick, William Vick, Joshua Vick, Josiah Vick, and Polly Vick. Present day descendants of Southampton County, Virginia are from Richard's family.
3. Mathew Vick does not appear to have left heirs.
4. ROBERT VICK married Sarah and he died in 1735, 5 children: Robert Vick, Joseph Vick, BENJAMIN VICK, Nathan Vick, and Mary Vick. Descendants of ROBERT settled in North and South Carolina.
5. John Vick married Catherine and died after 1746. They had one son John Vick. John's descendants settled first in Greenville County, Virginia and later to Mississippi.
6. Joseph Vick died after 1732, had one son James Vick.
7. William Vick married Elizabeth Hewitt and died in 1778, 7 children: William Vick, Simon Vick, Robert Vick, Isaac Vick, Elizabeth Vick, Mary Vick, and Martha Vick. Descendants of William founded Vicksburg, Mississippi.

nd Lucy (Hardy) Council had three children.
